Welcome to LEGO® Art

- Enter the world of LEGO® Art wall-mounted designs – an immersive, creative experience you can share with others to bring life to any space. Just build, relax and listen closely... you may already hear your charismatic macaws imitating the soothing sound of rustling LEGO bricks!

Free-spirited creativity

- Bringing nature into our homes can help bring us back to our own true nature. For centuries, in every culture, birds have adorned everything from accessories to grand palaces. Revered as natural icons of freedom and eternity, these free spirits soar positive energy into your heart and your space.

Wild trends/ Wilder on the inside

- As interior decor trends continue to draw inspiration from the healing powers of wild elements, it is only natural that animals – and birds in particular – have found a way to nest in our imagination, art and design.

With more than 11,000 species inhabiting our skies and landscapes, birds continually inspire us with equal parts grace, aesthetics, wit and playfulness. Their songs and tenacity carry optimism and joy, and their flight and independence awaken a sense of freedom in us.

Bold and bright

- As new additions to your wall art, your LEGO® Macaw Parrots are anything but shy wallflowers. Like their intelligent and talkative real-life counterparts, they will preen your creative feathers and add a rich pop of colour and contrast to any space with their commanding size and lustrous plumage.

Surprisingly organic

- Created primarily with LEGO® System bricks, your artwork articulates a new design language that truly incorporates and embodies the versatility of LEGO elements and colours. Whether you are a seasoned builder, or this is your first experience, we hope you enjoy the effortless transition from geometric elements to smooth, organic designs.

Bond with your birds

- Want to invite a companion to share the experience? Like macaws, we are deeply social creatures after all. Simply choose a booklet for each and let your collective creativity take flight. You can even explore and expand your LEGO® Art universe online, share your wall art and find new ideas with #brickism.

Set your birds free

- LEGO® Art is built to live outside traditional frames. Let your birds inspire you to find the perfect place for them – whether you hang them close together or display them on their separate adventures, you can be sure they will make themselves at home on any wall in your house.
